

[Vol. XII.]

A TANYARD.

THE subscribers have opened a Tanyard, in the town of Versailles which they are determined to carry on in the best manner possible. Calf, Merchandise, or Saddlery, will be given for all kinds of Hides. They will also take hides to be tanned on the shares. Those who will be so good as to favor them with their custom, may depend on being satisfied.

S. WILKINS,
WM. REID.

Verfailles, Jan. 16, 1790.

ALL persons are cautioned against putting or taking an assignment on note given by me to Richard Lake, for the payment of three pounds; as Mr. Lake failed to attend to the business in which he was engaged on my account, and for which the said note was given.

JOSEPH HAWKINS.

March 22, 1790.

JAMES B. JANUARY.

HAS removed his Store to the house adjoining the sign of the Buffalo, kept by John Mair, where he has opened a very handsome assortment of GOODS.

Available to the present and approaching season. He has also for sale, a quantity of

RED-CLOVER SEED.

Of this year's produce and the growth of Kentucky—a large quantity of SALT, IRON & CASTINGS, Assorted.—But,

LISTEN!

Those indebted to him, must pay off their respective balances on or before the 1st of February.

December 21, 1790.

HOUSES & LOTS FOR SALE, IN MOUNT STERLING.

None of which lots, is a TANYARD through which runs a constant stream of water; together with a good flock of Hides and Bark. They will be sold low for good property and cash, on a considerable credit.—Said lots will be sold in lots or together.—For terms apply to the subscriber on the premises.

PETER TROUTMAN.

February 13, 1790.

THOMAS REID.

COPPER & TIN WARE.

INFORMS his friends and the public, that he carries on the above business opposite Mr. Bradfords Printing Office on Main street; where he will be happy to serve any person who will please to favor him with their custom.

Lexington, January 7, 1790.

•• An active lad, of about fourteen years of age, and of good character, will be taken apprentice.

GEORGE

JAMES

And

BOOT & SHOE MANUFACTURERS.

YOUNG,

FLEMING,

Company,

SHOE

TURERS,

AT their Boot and Shoe Manufactory, on Water Street, opposite Mr. Brents tavern, and next door to Mrs. Thomas's, Lexington, take this method of informing the public, that they carry on the above business in an extensive manner, on the most moderate terms. They have on hand a quantity of Calf skins and Boot legs, brought from the Atlantic States, gentlemen and ladies who may please to favor, them with their custom shall be served on the shortest notice.

February 14th, 1790.

Just arrived from New-Orleans,

A quantity of high proof JAMAICA SPIRITS;

BEST HAVANNAH SUGAR, Which will be sold on low terms.—Apply to

A. HOLMES.

Lexington, May 26, 1790.

NICHOLAS

BOOT AND MANUFACTURER.

BRIGHT,

SHOE

TURER;

RETURNS his thanks to his customers, for their past favors, and hopes by his attention to business, to merit them in future. He begs leave to inform the public in general, that he continues to carry on the above business in all his branches, on Cross Street, two doors above Short Street.

He will take three or four apprentices to the above business.

Three or four journeymen, who are masters of their business, will meet with good encouragement.

FOR SALE.

ALL the lands belonging to John C. Owings, in this State.—Also his share in the Iron Works—for terms apply to

B. VANRADELLES, atty.

in fact for John C. Owings.

THE subscriber hereby informs the public, that he will keep constant on hand, excellent lime, at his lime house, about half a mile from Lexington, at col. Pattersons quarry at half penny per bushel, giving ten bushels for every hundred sold; he will have two or three thousand bushels ready by the last of April; he has now on hand five hundred bushels of excellent lime, for which he will take 9d per bushel giving the above allowance.—No lime delivered without an order.

He also informs the public that he will carry on the well digging business, as usual, his prices are 2/ and 6d per foot, thro' earth, if a cavity, or as far as a cavity extends in a rock, 9/ per foot, 15/ per foot for the first three feet after, and 18/ per foot for as far as the well is continued, 2/ per foot for the welling, boarding, laborers, powder, mortar work, &c. found by the owner of the well.

J. R. SHAW.

Pattersons quarry near Lexington, }
February 18th, 1790. } 1790

CHIEF GOODS.

THE SUBSCRIBERS

HAVE just received and now opening for sale, at their store opposite the market house, Lexington, a very large and elegant assortment of fitable to every season, which will certainly sell low for cash.—But from the very low profit they now sell at, no credit can be given.

MERCHANDIZE.

TROTTER & SCOTT.

A CONVENIENT

DWELLING-HOUSE.

WITH a good Kitchen, Smoke house and Garden, to be rented.—For terms apply to

R. W. DOWNING.

KENTUCKY LAWS.

JUST PUBLISHED,

And for sale at the Office of the Kentucky Gazette:

Price 21s.

AN EDITION OF THE

Laws of Kentucky;

Comprehending those of a GENERAL NATURE, now in force, and which have been acted on by the Legislature thereof.

TOGETHER WITH

A COPIOUS INDEX,

And a List of Local, or Private LAWS.

TO WHICH IS PREFIXED,

The Constitution of the United States,

With the Amendments,

The Act of Separation from Virginia,

AND

The Constitution of Kentucky.

•• SUBSCRIBERS to the above Work will be supplied with their copies by applying at this Office.

BY LAST EVENING'S MAIL.

European Intelligence.

England.

LONDON, February 6.

On the 7th inst. the directory communicated to the council the important news of the capture of Naples on the 24th of January.

The fortresses of Ehrenbreitstein has at length surrendered. Modern history scarce furnishes an example of a blockade of such duration, having lasted from April 1797, to January 1799.

February 9.

We understand that ministers have received intelligence from Mr. Wolpole, the king's minister at Lisbon, that the French had prevailed on the court of Madrid, to permit a body of troops to march thro' the Spanish territory, to attack Portugal, and that magazines were actually forming to favor the measure. This enterprise has been long foreseen by the British government, and as it threatens the safety to us, not only of our commercial ally, but of the convenience of the port of Lisbon, as a rendezvous and station to our fleet, by which alone, the advantages we have gained in the Mediterranean can be preserved, we trust that they have taken steps to defend that kingdom against the hostile invasion. A gallant and most able general is appointed to go to Portugal; we hope he will return with him a considerable body of troops, and that the military expedition now fitting out, is destined for the defence of that kingdom. They cannot have an object more essential or more important to the best interests of England.

February 16.

Government, it is said, has at length received official advice from Lord Nelson, the French troops having entered Naples. Two very fine Neapolitan ships of the line were brought away; but four others were left behind, to be destroyed by the Portuguese admiral and an English captain, to whom this business was entrusted, tho' the success of its being executed was doubtful.

Letters from Barcelona, by the Lisbon mail which arrived on Monday, mention in a very positive manner that the court of Madrid has granted permission for a French army to march thro' Spain, and that a division of French troops were expected at Barcelona in May next. Private letters from Lisbon mention reports of a similar nature; and it is believed that Lord St. Vincent's dispatches, by the Hyacinth of war, referred to this circumstance, altho' it was at first contradicted.

The following official notice was issued in Dublin, on the 30th ult.

GENERAL POST-OFFICE,

Dublin, January 30.

The public are hereby informed, that the mail coaches which were dispatched from hence this morning with the mails of last night, for the line of post from hence to Cork and Limerick, were stopped near the seven mile stone, on the Naas road, between eight and nine o'clock, by an armed banditti, consisting of about 20 men, armed and regularly appointed, who robbed them of the whole of the mails and all the horses belonging to the coaches.

The reports in circulation of the dissolution of the Irish parliament, are certainly unfounded. It is much more probable that it will be removed to Cork, in case the people of Dublin should show any further appearance of outrages against the persons of their representatives.

The National Institute, formed by the French in Egypt, holds its sitting with as much formality as if it were of an establishment. Several of the members have recommended that certain curiosities and valuable remains of antiquity, which they have found in their predatory pursuits, should be all conveyed to Paris, without giving themselves the trouble of consulting the owners.

February 19.

An Irish mail came to hand on Monday. It brought some further particulars of the insurrection which has lately broken out in the county of Clare, and on the borders of Galway, in which quarter the insurgents are said to have possessed themselves of two or three respectable towns. The pretence for these rebellious proceedings is the projected union, which the people seem obstinately determined to resist, and it is even rumored, but we hope without foundation, that several corps of yeomen have refused to act against the rebels.

The opposition to the uniting system, becomes every day more determined, more general and more alarming. From the chancellor of the exchequer, down to the humble tiller of the soil, there appears to be but one sentiment on the occasion. The British Cabinet, however, seem resolved to risk the question. Several noblemen and gentlemen, whose sentiments are known to be hostile to the measure, have resigned their official situations. Among these, besides Sir John Parnell, we understand are, Lord Shannon, one of the lords of the treasury; Lord Carhampton, master-general of the ordnance, Mr. Toller, attorney general; Mr. Fitzgerald, prime sergeant; Mr. Burgh, secretary to the treasury; Messrs. Knox, Wolfe and Foster, commissioners of the revenue; and Mr. John Claudius Beresford, fore-keeper and taster of wines at the custom house. Lord Trelawny, Sir Hercules Langrishe, Mr. Mason, Mr. Coote, and several others, are also said to have resigned the offices held by them under government, on the same account. His majesty's ministers have an arduous duty to fulfil, and we have no doubt but they will discharge the trust reposed in them with fidelity, and for the advantage of both countries.

It appears by letters arrived in town from Dublin, that on Friday and Saturday the rebel party in the county of Clare, had been augmented to 12,000 men; that they made a vigorous attack on the town of Clare, and Clare castle, and maintained a chain of posts between the latter and the town of Ennis, of which it is concluded they are now in possession. The letters express an alarming apprehension that the communication between Ennis and the metropolis will shortly be stopped, without timely aid.

France.

PARIS, February 10.

As no official details have been yet published respecting the councils of the kingdom of Naples, the following may prove interesting. The army of Rome stopped a moment by the sudden want of provisions was obliged to suspend its rapid career. Its impatient courage was turned into indignation and fury against the neglect of the commissaries who had occasioned its inaction; when the general succeeded in skillfully directing the rage of the troops against the enemy. "Your magazines (he exclaimed) are at Naples." "Let us then (they replied) march on to Naples." Capua was instantly carried by assault, and the remains of the Neapolitan army which had been rallied by flame and bayonet fell under the point of the French standard, and covered the vulture, and six leagues of the road to Naples with their bodies. Behind them were piled the Lazzarini, the boasted supports of the expiring monarchy. Sixty thousand of them were killed and the French fatigued with slaughter, planted the standard of liberty in Naples. Their entrance into Naples produced a new engagement and the houses from which the inhabitants fired on our troops were burnt.

Scotland.

GLASGOW, March 2.

French and Dutch papers have been received from Holland. The directory are making great preparations for war, and have issued orders for new levies of men by the system of requisition. Similar orders have been issued by the Batavian republic, where all citizens from 20 to 30 years of age are to serve in the first levie; it is rumored that count Belgrade has been sent by the emperor to Paris to negotiate a definitive peace. The Turks and Russians are said to have been defeated in their attacks upon the island of Corfu.

American intelligence.

Virginia.

NORFOLK, April 22.

There was an arrival on Saturday, in seven weeks from Bristol, which papers of a late date have been received in town. As yet we have not been able to procure any, but have been promised some. The reports in circulation which originated from these papers, are, that Portugal has undergone the fate of Naples and Sardinia, and is now in the possession of the French—that the queen had taken refuge on board Lord St. Vincent's fleet, and was on her way to London—that the organization of the Republic of Egypt was completed, and tranquility established—that the rebellion in Ireland had become too mighty for the power of England in that country, and it was expected would shortly terminate in the complete independency of the whole island; it is also said that the British fleet has effected a landing of troops in Ireland; but to this we know not what degree of faith ought to be attached. The French were only employed seven days in effecting the conquest of Portugal, from the time of their entering it. If we are so fortunate as to obtain those which have been promised to us, their contents will be speedily published.

FREDERICKSBURG, April 20.

REPRESENTATIVES TO CONGRESS.

Gen. H. Lee, vice Mr. Jones.

Leven Powell, vice Mr. Brent.

Gen. J. Marshall, vice Mr. Clopton.

Robert Page, vice Gen. Morgan.

RE-ELECTED.

John Nicholas, Alexander Parker, John Dawson, Samuel J. Cabell, Anthony New.

North Carolina.

WILMINGTON, April 18.

At about three-quarters after three o'clock in the morning of Thursday last, the 18th inst. an alarming shock of an earthquake was felt in this town and its vicinity. The relation of those who happened to be awake at the time the awful phenomenon commenced, differs very much; but from the most general opinion, we state the following account:

A hollow rumbling noise was heard first from the north, or north-east, which gradually diminished and then revived with increased noise and a great trembling of the earth, resembling the effect of a heavy carriage rattling over a pavement. The sound seemed to progress in a fourth or south-west direction, and gradually to die away like deep distant thunder. Upon the commencement to the conclusion of the shock was about a minute, and a trembling lasted some half a minute. It was felt very public in a boat on the river.

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

THE DESERTED FAIR-HOUSE.

By PHILIP FREEMAN.

THIS antique dome, the unimpaired tomb of time

New built with the day's handiwork; but

Yet, ere it goes, life's gay bonfire burns

On this low ruin, that his years have made.

Behold the wretched hearth—where once the fire

Blaze'd high, and crack'd the airy travellers' wings;

See the warm roof, that once gave refuge,

Amid the chilling winds, and soft descending snows.

Here, to forget the labors of the day,

No more the fumes at evening hours repair,

But wandering flocks affix the well known way,

To pass the rigors of the midnight air.

In yonder chamber, half to ruinous,

Once found the ancient housewife's certain bed;

Touch the prudent mother's hand with silver,

And each domestic comfort with her fill.

The trees, the flowers that her own hands had rear'd,

The plants, the vines that were so valiant seen,

The trees, the flowers, the vines have all departed,

And every plant has vanish'd from the green.

So fits in tears, on wild Campania's plain,

The ancient mistress of a world's delight,

That triumph'd o'er the winds that fabled the main,

And time himself, in her will triumphs brav'd.

So fits in tears, on Polyphus's shore

The Hebrew queen, of Jephtha's once divine;

Her sighs, her tears, her triumphs are no more;

Still are her griefs, and still her glory shines.

Once in the hands of this faithful's room,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

Perhaps found within ancestral country's name,

SAMUEL & GEORGE TROTTER

HAVE just received, and are now opening at their store on Main street, Lexington, a large and general assortment of MERCHANDISE.

Which they offer for sale on the lowest terms for Cash.

9c Lexington, 3d April, 1799.

FOR SALE.

Several Small Tracts of Very Valuable LAND, and of inconvertible TITHE, viz:

MILITARY LANDS IN THE STATE OF TENNESSEE.

260 Acres, comprising three tracts of 120 acres each, adjoining the northern boundaries of an addition to the town of Clarksville, of the eastern bank of the river Cumberland, with a fine spring of water in each of the said tracts.

40 town lots, and out lots, being part of 16 town lots, and out lots in the aforesaid addition to the town of Clarksville.

33 Separated out lots of two acres each, being part of 50 out lots, lying on the said side of the aforesaid addition to the town of Clarksville, reserved for the accommodation of the purchasers of the town lots, during the term of 18 months from November last.

IN THE ILLINOIS GRANT, N. W. TERRITORY.

200 acres, being part of a 200 acre survey No. 125, granted to John Moore, as lieutenant of soldiers in the Illinois regiment, by a deed of the trustees of said grant.

LANDS LYING NEAR THE VILLAGE KASKASKIA, IN THE ILLINOIS GRANT, now county of St. Clair, N. W. Territory, granted by contract or commandant for the state of Virginia, in 1793.

1440 acres, viz. 960 in grants of 120 acres—400 in grants of 240 acres—joined together on the east side of the river Kaskaskia, opposite the village of the same name.

564 acres bounded on the front by the fair river Kaskaskia.

3880 acres, comprehending 10 grants in the year 1794, lying together on the west side of the river Kaskaskia, above and near the village of the same name.

360 acres, bounded on the north by the aforesaid 3880 acres.

All lands in the town of Kaskaskia, pleasantly situated near the mouth of the river.

For further information apply to

P. D. ROBERT.

Who has for sale 450 lbs. of very good Gunpowder.

To Distillers.

THE law requires that all owners of stills, (whether licensed for use or otherwise) shall be examined, and be sworn in, in June annually.—As the law will be strictly put in force against those who do not comply, it was thought proper to give this public notice, that no license may no longer be plead as an excuse.

JOHN ARTHUR.

Lexington, 2d May, 1799.

A YOUNG SINGLE MAN

WHO is well acquainted with managing a farm, attending a stock of horses and cattle, and the care of a number of hands, will accept with pleasure. None need apply who can't come well recommended.

ROBERT BARR.

March 26th, 1799.

WANTED.

AN apprentice to the TANNING and CURRYING business—a lad of good character and connections.

W. STORY, Georgetown.

Take Notice.

THAT my wife Margaret has absented herself from my bed and board, without any provocation—This is to forewarn all persons from crediting her on my account, as I am determined not to pay any debts of her contracting upon this date.

George Tangler.

May 3d, 1799.

Notice

THAT commissioners appointed by the county court of Montgomery county, with most at the dwelling house of Thomas Duley, in said county, on the first day of June next, and proceed to the beginning corner of Thomas Duley's entry of four hundred and ninety five acres of land, on the waters of Sanding, a tributary in the county of Francis, of one thousand acres; both made on the 15th day of May, 1788—then and there to take the depositions of witnesses, and perquisite their testimony relative to the fact entered, and such other acts as shall be deemed necessary and agreeable to law.

Thomas Duley,

Francis Keene.

May 4th, 1799.

JAMES ROSE,

BOOT & SHOE MAKER,

From New York.

RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he carries on business in all his various branches, on Cross street, two doors below Mr. Nathan's new dwelling. He has also just opened a new line, on Main street, next door to Mr. Lewis's door, where he has a handsome assortment of Boots, Shoes, and Leather, which he will sell wholesale or retail. Great bargains for cash. The above goods were lately imported from Philadelphia, and were laid in on such terms as will merit the attention of his customers.

N. S. Six good hands, wanted immediately, to whom generous wages shall be given.

CAUTION to the public, not to buy of James Trotter any part of the estate of James Trotter deceased, as being the donor of him, late Margaret Street, widow of the said deceased—as I purchased of said Margaret, in June last, all her right, long before said Trotter died.

JOHN STERRETT.

April 29, 1799.

TAKE up the subscriber in Montgomery county, no State, near the Forge, a bay filly, judged to be 2 years old this spring, but a large round ear in her forehead and small pit on her nose, no brand perceivable, not broke for use; appraised to 90.

ROBT. EWING.

March 13, 1799.

JUST RECEIVED.

And now opening for sale, a large and general assortment of

DRY GOODS,

GROCERIES,

HARD WARE,

QUEEN'S WARE, &c.

which will be sold very low for Cash; but no credit need be expected.

Geo. Tegarden.

April 18, 1799.

Charles Humphreys

Has removed his store to the house lately occupied by Mr. C. Beatty, where he has just opened a handsome assortment of Fresh Goods.

if Lexington, April 15, 1799.

THE subscriber earnestly requests all those indebted to him by bill, note or book account, to come forward and pay them off. Such as have accounts standing open and not pay them at present, will please to call and close them by giving their notes.

Alex. Parker.

Lexington, April 16, 1799.

THE SUBSCRIBERS

HAVE just received, and now opened for sale, a large and elegant assortment of

BOOKS;

Among which are the following, Viz:

ROLLIN's ancient history,

Locke on human knowledge,

Plutarch's lives,

Plutarch's modern history,

Plutarch's life of Cato,

Plutarch's life of Cicero,

Plutarch's life of Demosthenes,

Plutarch's life of Alexander,

Plutarch's life of Pompey,

Plutarch's life of Caesar,

Plutarch's life of Crassus,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

Plutarch's life of Cato the younger,

Plutarch's life of Cato the elder,

THE SUBSCRIBER

INFORMS his friends and the public, he proposes to attend the courts of Lexington, Danville, Clarke, Woodford, Scott and Jefferson, as an attorney. Such as employ him, may depend on the greatest attention, in the faithful discharge of business committed to his care.

James Bliss.

Lexington, 28th March, 1799.

CASH & MERCHANDISE

will be given by the subscriber, FOR

TOBACCO.

All those indebted to him are requested to make immediate payment.

JAMES WIER.

December 24th, 1798.

PERIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

THAT by act of Congress passed on the 11th day of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act regulating the grant of land appropriated for military service, and for the payment of arrears of bounty to the soldiers of the Continental Army," it is enacted, that the following shall be the manner of granting the same: That the tract of land hereinafter described, namely, "beginning at the north-west corner of the seven ranges of township, and running thence fifty miles due north, along the western boundary of the four ranges thence due west to the Main branch of the Scioto river; thence up the Main branch of the Scioto river to the place where the Indian boundary line crosses the line; thence along the said boundary line to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence down the Scioto river, to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence along the line to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence down the Scioto river, to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence along the line to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence down the Scioto river, to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence along the line to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence down the Scioto river, to the place where the Scioto river crosses the line; thence